About This Content

Secrets, lies and double agents. Nothing and no one is who they seem as the Resistance and Security factions deal with the arrival of a mysterious ship from the outside world. In Agents of Change, the battle for the future of humanity spreads to two all-new districts of the Ark – the futuristic, underwater Labs facility and Founders' Tower, the iconic spire housing the island's wealthy elite. Unleash several new abilities on your enemies as your work your way towards the newly raised level cap of 24 and customize your character with brand-new outfits and additional weapon attachments.

Key Features:

- New Maps –
  - Founders' Tower – The revolution finally reaches the island's iconic spire and takes the battle for the Ark to dizzying heights.
  - Labs – Venture into the depths of the Ark's original research and development laboratories, a submerged high-tech facility so far untouched by the civil war.

  - UAV – This stealthy and lethal device allows Operatives to automatically mark nearby enemies on their radar. For more explosive fun, they can even take direct control of the UAV and detonate it near unsuspecting foes.
  - Napalm Grenade – Soldiers can use this new grenade to cover an area in a sea of deadly flames.
  - Pyro Mine – Engineers can plant these mines and leave enemies in the epicenter of a massive napalm explosion.
  - Field Regen Unit – Medics can deploy these units to increase the health regeneration of any nearby teammates.
  - Tactical Scanner – This universal ability allows players to reveal the active buffs of their opponents, allowing them to pick off enemies more strategically.

- New Weapon Attachments –
    - Bayonets – Gain the edge in melee combat and cause extra damage with these deadly blades.
    - Weapon Shields – Take cover from enemy fire and prevent headshot bonus damage behind riot-style shields.
- New Character Outfits – always liked playing it. A lot of people give this game a bad review, and while i agree that there should have been more time put into it, i's still a fun game.. Adds four new story missions (2 for Resistance, 2 for Security), and some other abilities, weapon attachments, and character customization. Being that I got it for a $1.79, it was more than worth it. Even for 4 dollars, which is the regular price, it's STILL worth it. I mean, people pay more for a slice of pizza at a ball game, and that only lasts for about an 15 mins tops. This will last you far longer and cost you far less. What do you have to lose?. Makes the game remotely playable.
